

Air Fryer Volcano Potatoes Recipe: Crispy Stuffed Potatoes in 30 Minutes

Description

Meta Description: Learn how to make crispy Air Fryer Volcano Potatoes! These hollowed, stuffed potatoes are loaded with cheese, bacon, and toppings. Easy 30-minute recipe with step-by-step instructions.

Focus Keywords: air fryer volcano potatoes, stuffed potatoes air fryer, volcano potatoes recipe

What Are Air Fryer Volcano Potatoes?

Air Fryer Volcano Potatoes are hollowed-out baby potatoes stuffed with delicious fillings like cheese, bacon, sour cream, and chives. The potatoes get incredibly crispy on the outside while remaining fluffy inside, and when topped with melted cheese, they resemble mini volcanoes—hence the name! This healthy, low-oil recipe takes just 30 minutes from start to finish.

Why Make Volcano Potatoes in an Air Fryer?

- Crispy texture without deep frying
- 75% less oil than traditional methods
- Ready in 30 minutes (faster than oven)
- Perfect portion control with baby potatoes
- Customizable fillings for any taste

Click here To View Full Recipe

Ingredients for Air Fryer Volcano Potatoes

For the Potatoes:

- 8-10 baby potatoes (gold or red, similar size)
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon black pepper
- ½ teaspoon garlic powder
- ½ teaspoon paprika

For the Filling:

- 1 cup shredded cheddar cheese
- 4 strips cooked bacon, crumbled
- ¼ cup sour cream

- 2 tablespoons cream cheese, softened
- 2 tablespoons chopped chives

Toppings:

- Extra shredded cheese
- Additional bacon bits
- Sour cream
- Green onions

Servings: 4 | Prep Time: 10 minutes | Cook Time: 20 minutes

How to Make Air Fryer Volcano Potatoes (Step-by-Step)

Step 1: Prepare the Potatoes

1. Wash and dry baby potatoes thoroughly
2. Cut off tops (about ¼ inch) and save as “lids”
3. Hollow out centers using a melon baller or small spoon, leaving ¼-inch walls
4. Save the scooped potato for the filling

Pro Tip: Choose potatoes that can stand upright for best “volcano” presentation.

Step 2: Season and Pre-Cook

5. Brush potatoes with olive oil inside and out
6. Season with salt, pepper, garlic powder, and paprika
7. Place in air fryer basket standing upright at 380°F (193°C)
8. Air fry for 12-15 minutes until potatoes are tender and edges are golden

Step 3: Make the Filling

9. Mash scooped potato in a bowl
10. Mix in sour cream, cream cheese, ½ cup shredded cheddar, and half the bacon
11. Add chives and season with salt and pepper
12. Stir until creamy and well combined

Step 4: Stuff and Finish

13. Remove potatoes from air fryer carefully
14. Fill each potato generously with the cheese-bacon mixture
15. Top with remaining cheese for the “lava” effect
16. Return to air fryer at 380°F for 3-5 minutes until cheese melts and bubbles
17. Garnish with bacon, sour cream, and chives

Expert Tips for Perfect Volcano Potatoes

Choosing Potatoes:

- Use similar-sized potatoes (1.5-2 inches) for even cooking
- Yukon Gold provides buttery flavor
- Red potatoes offer firmer texture

Air Fryer Success:

- Don't overcrowd the basket—work in batches if needed
- Spray basket with cooking spray to prevent sticking
- Check at 12 minutes—cooking time varies by air fryer model
- Stand potatoes upright using crumpled foil if they tip over

Filling Variations:

- Loaded: Add jalapeños and ranch seasoning
- Pizza style: Mozzarella, pepperoni, and marinara
- Broccoli cheese: Steamed broccoli and cheddar
- Taco: Seasoned beef, Mexican cheese, and salsa

Nutritional Information (Per Serving)

- Calories: 245
- Fat: 14g
- Carbohydrates: 22g
- Protein: 9g
- Fiber: 2g

Based on 4 servings; actual values may vary by ingredients used.

Serving Suggestions

These crispy stuffed potatoes are perfect as:

- Appetizers for parties and game day
- Side dish with grilled steak or chicken
- Snacks for movie night
- Brunch addition alongside eggs

Serve with: Ranch dressing, BBQ sauce, or garlic aioli for dipping

Storage and Reheating

Refrigerate: Store in airtight container for up to 3 days

Reheat: Air fry at 350°F for 5-6 minutes until crispy

Freeze: Not recommended (potatoes become watery)

FAQs

Can I use large potatoes?

Yes! Use russet potatoes, cut in half, hollow out, and increase cooking time to 18-20 minutes.

Do I need to boil potatoes first?

No! The air fryer cooks them perfectly without pre-boiling, saving time and preserving nutrients.

Can I make these dairy-free?

Absolutely! Use vegan cheese and cashew cream instead of dairy products.

What if my potatoes won't stand up?

Create a foil ring or cut a small slice from the bottom (carefully) to create a flat base.

Why You'll Love This Recipe

Air Fryer Volcano Potatoes transform simple baby potatoes into restaurant-quality appetizers with minimal effort and oil. The crispy exterior, creamy filling, and gooey cheese topping create an irresistible combination that appeals to kids and adults alike. Plus, the customizable nature means you can make them exactly how you like!

Ready to make these show-stopping stuffed potatoes? Fire up your air fryer and prepare for compliments!

Category

1. Air Fryer Recipes

Date Created

07/10/2025

Author

rauf