About Cleopatra Hospital:

Since we established the hospital in 2014, we have had a set of goals to achieve in the short and long term, to be the largest hospital group in Egypt, to increase capacity in order to serve and provide high-quality care at affordable prices to the largest possible number of people, to provide uniform quality of care in all our facilities, so that our patients can trust that they are They will receive the best care in any of our facilities, by standardizing the quality of equipment and services and training staff in all hospitals, and attracting the most qualified doctors

Obtaining international accreditation and establishing centers of excellence in all our hospitals, which helped improve the quality of medical services and provide outstanding results for our patients
Expanding our network Hospitals and Nutraceuticals over the past two years has significantly driven through a tight strategy of continuous improvement of our patients' experience

Our philosophy is to act in a way that puts the patient at the heart of everything we do, which ultimately helps us become better at what we do, introduce new innovations and technologies, and increase the efficiency of our operations. Higher standards of healthcare quality. Consistently doing the right thing with each patient is a challenge, and therefore communication between physician and patient is critical to this process.

At the same time, CHG has built long-term partnerships with both government and private organizations to help other hospitals meet these same standards, in line with its strategy to institutionalize the sector and ensure access to first-class healthcare and highly trained medical practitioners.

Cleopatra Hospitals is constantly working to give you the experience you want and expect from the leading hospital in Egypt.
