What are Supermarket helper jobs in Dubai?

There are a number of ways to get supermarket helper jobs in Dubai. The most common way is to find a vacancy on an online job board. Another way is to approach a local recruitment agency and ask if they have any jobs available. Finally, you can also try contacting the supermarkets directly and asking if they are looking for help.

Why are there so many vacancies?

There are many reasons for the high number of vacancies in the supermarket sector in Dubai. Firstly, the recession has caused a decline in foot traffic and spending at traditional stores, which has led to a decrease in job opportunities. Secondly, supermarkets are now facing stiff competition from online retailers, who are able to offer lower prices and better quality products. Finally, over the past few years, there has been an influx of foreign workers into Dubai, which has led to a shortage of local employees.
